Earn three semester units of professional development credit per year while progressing through your BTSA program.

This is an online class that meets via e-mail. This class is designed with reflective activities that support and clarify the new teacher experience.

The class is designed for both participating teachers and support providers that are active in the program.

The class supports teachers in a CFASST program or the Santa Cruz program.

All work is done online. The due dates are set up to reflect the participating teacher's pace through the program.

Participating teacher support provider partnerships are encouraged. School teams are very welcome!

This class is offered through the Fresno Pacific School of Professional Studies, Center for Professional Development.

Enrollment Requirements:

- Participants must be part of a BTSA program
- Support provider must be supporting at least one participating teacher
- Must have access to a computer with internet and e-mail capabilities

Instructor: Sylvia Gamble

Comments from former teachers regarding the benefits of the BTSA support class:

- The time, flexibility, convenience, and opportunity to work on the class on my own time.
- The time in a different sense - to look at what I was trying to accomplish, reflecting on my strengths and areas for growth.
- The opportunity to look at my class and teaching from a different perspective.
