COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

Starting Spring 2002

Area 1 courses

1-49	Non-credit educational experiences.
50-99	Pre-baccalaureate university credit courses of a preparatory, remedial, or semiprofessional nature. Not applicable to degree requirements.
100-299	Lower division undergraduate courses which are general and introductory in nature. They are intended to provide a foundation for advanced work.
300-499	Upper division undergraduate courses which generally assume prior knowledge or experience in the subject, with content more advanced or specific than lower division courses.

Area 2 courses

500-599	Graduate courses that contribute to the completion of a graduate degree and can also be used to satisfy degree requirements for integrated bachelor's degree programs. These courses are available to graduate students and undergraduate students enrolled in integrated degree pathways designed for completion of both a bachelor's and master's degree.
600-699	Graduate courses leading to the teaching credential. Open to holders of a baccalaureate degree who have been admitted to the teacher education program subject to prerequisites or other requirements as stated in program or course description. A limited number of these courses may be taken by undergraduates with prior approval.
700-799	Graduate courses open to holders of a baccalaureate degree subject to prerequisite or other requirements as stated in program or course descriptions. A limited number of these courses may be taken by undergraduates, with approval.

Area 3 courses

900-999	Graduate courses designed for professional development and not as part of a degree program.
1000-1999	Graduate-level university credit offered through the Center for Professional Development for workshops and conferences, and not part of a degree program.
2000-2099	Graduate-level university credit offered through the Center for Professional Development for workshops and conferences, and not part of a degree program.
8000-8999	Continuing Education Units (CEUs). Not for university credit. Courses designed to advance the knowledge and skills of professionals. One CEU is awarded for each 10-clock-hour experience.

REPEAT POLICY

When a student repeats (at FPU) a course previously taken at FPU, the highest grade received is used to calculate the student's grade-point average.

GRADING SYSTEM

Grade point average is calculated by dividing total grade points by total attempted GPA credits.

These grades do affect the grade point average:

A	4 points	Outstanding scholarship
A-	3.7 points
B+	3.3 points	Good scholarship
B	3 points
B-	2.7 points
C+	2.3 points	Satisfactory scholarship (area 1)
C	2 points
C-	1.7 points	Marginal scholarship (area 2)
D+	1.3 points	Poor scholarship
D	1 point
D-	.7 points
F	0 points	Unsatisfactory scholarship
UW	0 points	Unauthorized withdrawal: little or no attendance, no official drop

These grades do not affect the grade point average:

AU Audit (satisfactory)
CR Credit: Completion of the course with a grade of "C" or better (area 1 and select seminary courses); "B" or better (areas 2 and 3)
E Enrichment
I Incomplete, no default grade
IC Prior to 2014- Insufficient basis for evaluation: little or no attendance, no official drop (no credit) (area 2)
IP In-Progress: Course extends beyond end of a single term. Final grades await course completion.
I_ Any other grade that starts with an "I" is what the student will receive if the incomplete is not fulfilled.
NC No Credit: Completion of the course with grade below "C" (area 1 and select seminary courses); below "B" (areas 2 and 3)
NR No report, report delayed by instructor
R Research in progress
S Satisfactory participation
U Unsatisfactory participation
UA Audit (unsatisfactory)
W Withdrawal
