

DEGREE COMPLETION NON-MATRICULATED APPLICATION

The non-matriculated application is for people who are interested in taking baccalaureate classes through the Degree Completion program, but are not seeking to be admitted into that program. This application only needs to be filled out once in order to be qualified to take courses. Applicants must also meet the four-year post-secondary experience requirement to take these courses. Financial Aid is not available, and the course limit is six units per semester with a limit of two semesters total. For more information, or for help filling out this application, please contact Graduate and Degree Completion Admissions at (559) 453-2016.
