Applying for Undergraduate Admission

Students applying to a traditional undergraduate program should present a record of achievement that documents their academic experiences and their extracurricular and/or community activities. Skills in critical thinking, communication, reading and a solid foundation in writing and mathematics are highly desirable. The Office of Undergraduate Admission takes the following criteria into consideration when evaluating applicants:

- Academic achievement in high school and/or post-secondary education (GPA, course selection, academic rigor and class rank).
- Achievement test scores (SAT and/or ACT) are optional.
- Response to required essay question.

Application Steps

To apply, the following documents must be submitted before an application will be reviewed:

- A completed application for admission.
 - ◊ Students may apply for admission online at fresno.edu/apply.
 - ◊ It is free to apply. No application fee waiver code is needed!
- An essay as indicated on the application for admission.
- Official transcript(s) of all credits earned in high school and any college or university previously attended as a dual-enrolled student.
 - ◊ High school transcripts should reflect work through at least six semesters of high school to be considered.
 - ◊ Students who have not earned a high school diploma will be considered for admission based on certificates acquired through the General Education Development Tests (GED) or the California High School Proficiency Examination.
 - ◊ Transfer students are required to submit a high school transcript.
 - ◊ Transfer students will be reviewed for admission solely on college-level work if they have a minimum of 24 transferable units with a 2.4 academic GPA.
- Official transcript(s) from each post-secondary school attended (college or university).
 - ◊ Veterans seeking benefits must submit a DD214, military transcripts and must apply with the Department of Veteran's Affairs to determine eligibility.
- Achievement test scores are optional. If you opt to submit test scores, official score reports from the SAT and/or ACT should be sent directly to FPU.
 - ◊ Achievement test scores may be required for athletic eligibility or specific program enrollment.
 - ◊ Register for the SAT at sat.org and the ACT at act.org
 - FPU SAT Code: 4616
 - FPU ACT Code: 0357

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students desiring to attend FPU on an F-1 student visa may have additional required documentation. Contact the International Admission Office for more information.

NON-MATRICULATING/NON-DEGREE SEEKING STUDENTS

A non-matriculating or non-degree seeking student is someone interested in taking classes, but does not want a degree from FPU. Often these are students who have degrees but want to take additional classes for personal or professional development. A non-degree seeking student needs to submit an application for admission indicating non-degree status and provide proof of high school graduation or equivalent. Non-degree seeking students are not eligible for any federal, state or institutional aid. Other guidelines or restrictions may apply.

AUDIT

New students wishing to audit a class can submit an application for admission indicating audit status. Students auditing a class are not eligible for financial aid and will not receive course credit.

RE-ADMISSION

Former FPU students who have not been enrolled in and/or have not submitted a leave of absence form for the previous semester will be required to re-apply for admission to FPU. Students can re-apply by submitting a re-admission application form to the Office of Undergraduate Admission. Students who have attended another educational institution during their absence will be required to submit official transcripts before an admission decision will be made.

Any offer of admission to Fresno Pacific University prior to the applicant's completion of high school is provisional, subject to successful academic work during their remainder of high school and proof of graduation, except for candidates who are applying for college entrance without high school graduation. Any offer of admission to an applicant transferring from another college is provisional subject to successful completion of course work in progress at the time of application and proof of good standing from the previous college. Meeting admission requirements does not guarantee admission. Admission to the university does not guarantee admission to specific academic programs. Student's with a felony or misdemeanor conviction or adjudication, may not be eligible for clinical or internship placements, state licensure or other certifications required for successful program completion and/or employment. (ie: nursing clinicals and licensure, state education licensure, social work internships and licensure). All application materials become the property of Fresno Pacific University.

Fresno Pacific University is committed to providing a learning and living environment that, consistent with its Christian beliefs, promotes safety, transparency, personal integrity, civility, mutual respect and freedom from invidious discrimination. Fresno Pacific is a Christian university governed by the Pacific District Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches, and is controlled by a board of trustees, the majority of whose voting members are elected by delegates of the conference. Fresno Pacific adopts and follows the Confession of Faith of the U.S. Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches. As such, Fresno Pacific is exempt under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 34 C.F.R. section 106.12, and from provisions of California Education Code 66270 to the extent that the application of Title IX and California Education Code 66270 are not consistent with our religious tenets. These exemptions may apply to, but are not limited to, requirements in the university's community standards, employment policies, housing policies, admission and recruitment processes, benefits and services, financial assistance, and our academic programs, including student leadership, athletic and arts programs. Fresno Pacific University retains all rights afforded under federal law and the laws of the State of California.

In compliance with Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Fresno Pacific University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, age, disability or status as a veteran in the recruitment or admission of students or in any of its policies, practices or procedures.

Values and Behavioral Expectations

The Fresno Pacific Idea affirms the university as a learning community that seeks to encourage its members ... “in a collaborative search for knowledge and experience which lend towards a perceptive and creative relationship with God, humanity, and the natural world...” As an extension of the educational mission of the Mennonite Brethren Church, the university affirms the authority of the Bible over all matters of faith and life. While Fresno Pacific University is a distinctly Christian institution, students do not have to be Christian to be admitted. Fresno Pacific University invites all who are committed to upholding the principles of respect, integrity and doing good in all situations, to be members of its community.

The common good of any community is accomplished through established standards and behavioral expectations. Fresno Pacific University bases its standards and expectations on its Community Life Values: Integrity, Respect and Stewardship.

By accepting the invitation to attend Fresno Pacific University, you become part of its community and agree to abide by and uphold the behavioral expectation encapsulated in the Community Life Values and Standards. Behavioral expectations that flow out of the values include, but are not limited to:

INTEGRITY

- Actions and attitudes that uphold Christian and campus values.
- Individuals are to adhere to the laws of the “state” – city, county, state and federal.
- Academic integrity – plagiarism, cheating, etc. are prohibited.
- Fresno Pacific is a drug, alcohol, tobacco and marijuana free environment. Possession, use or being under the influence of illegal drugs is prohibited on and off campus. Underage consumption and providing alcohol for underage students is prohibited at all times, both on and off campus.
- Scripture and the Confession of Faith of the U.S. Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches (the university's sponsoring denomination) affirm marriage as existing only between a man and a woman. Fresno Pacific acknowledges the legality of same-sex marriage. Physical intimacy is reserved for individuals within a marriage covenant. The following conduct is prohibited: cohabitation with a romantic partner outside of a marriage relationship, living together with a member(s) of the opposite sex outside of marriage, excessive displays of romantic affection on campus or at officially sponsored FPU events.
- Internet activities, entertainment choices or reading materials are to be consistent with Christian and campus values. Involvement with sexually explicit or suggestive materials – viewing, sending, possessing, etc., is prohibited.

RESPECT

- Behavior that is productive to the education environment and upholds and promotes the academic success of others.
- Respect for the rights and opinions of others and for all campus authorities.
- Individuals are to conduct themselves with kindness and self-control. Harassment, hazing, intimidation, verbal threats, threatening or reckless behavior and violence directed at others are prohibited.

STEWARDSHIP

- Care and respect for personal and university property.
- Possession or use of firearms, fireworks, explosives or weapons on campus is prohibited.
- Students whose behavior falls short of the declaration or intent of Fresno Pacific University's Values and Behavioral Expectations will be referred to the restorative discipline process.

To complete your application, please sign below stating that you have read, understand and agree to uphold the Fresno Pacific University's Values and Behavioral Expectations as stated above and represented in the FPU Undergraduate Catalog and the Student Life Handbook.
