STATEMENTS AND AGREEMENTS

Part A: Statement of Standards
Jerusalem University College strives to cultivate an enriched understanding of the Christian faith through a first-hand encounter with the Land, involving the language, history, and culture associated with Scriptures. It makes use of the unique resources available in Israel to fashion an education of high quality.

The Jewish and Arab cultures here differ from one another and are quite different from the Western culture of which many incoming students are a part. While the nonreligious segment of the Jewish culture has similarities with the Western culture, the Arab people—both Muslim and Christian—have very different values and norms of behavior.

In recent years the social culture in the Western world has changed so rapidly that the behavior of some students coming to the university has been detrimental to the ongoing Christian witness JUC seeks to maintain with the Jewish and Arab peoples (including those on the Institute staff). For this reason we ask that you endeavor to understand the position of the Institute in this country and agree to abide by the following university standards.

Because of the cultural mores, particularly within the Arab population, a dress standard is observed. Short shorts may not be worn at any time. Mid-thigh and walking shorts are acceptable on field trips. Slacks are generally acceptable everywhere. You represent the Institute while you are here; how you look becomes how we are viewed in the eyes of the community.

The Arab community does not have the equivalent of the word “dating” in its vocabulary. When a woman is seen with a man, it may be assumed that, if they are not married, they may be living together; therefore, the woman (unmarried) would be considered a “promiscuous woman.” With this in mind, students must be cautious in their physical contact with each other. This includes engaged couples and married couples.

With a 50+ year history of maintaining an evangelical Christian witness in this culture, we find it necessary to uphold these standards of conduct.

Agreement: I have read the above Statement of Standards and understand that I will be living in Israel under the auspices of the Jerusalem University College. I also understand the Christian frame of reference in which I will be living. Should I abuse my relationship to the university, I realize that the university has the responsibility and the authority to sever this relationship and to arrange for my return to my country, at my expense. I also understand that as well as being subject to the rules and regulations of Jerusalem University College, I am subject to the rules and regulations of my home institution (if I am currently enrolled elsewhere). I, therefore, agree to strive to the best of my judgment to fit into life at the university and to be a responsible participant in the program to which I am admitted.

PLEASE INITIAL HERE YOUR AGREEMENT WITH PART A

Part B: Disclosure Statement
Travel invariably has its hazards, especially in countries where standards of health care, sanitation, public safety and similar situations differ from those in your home country. Other complications you may encounter are changes in language, customs, culture and laws.

Jerusalem University College makes every effort to avoid unnecessary risk by trying to control travel, food service, and sanitation. The university has operated for over 40 years in the Middle East and has had few incidents and no major problems. However, the educational experience requires that we travel in the countryside where physical exertion (this is a strenuous program) and exposure to the culture are common. You should understand that this study and associated travel can be undertaken solely at your own risk.

The university is a non-profit educational institution with few assets and minimal insurance. It is essential that you have health insurance while in Israel. Hospitals will not treat a patient without proof of credit card or cash. All hospital bills in Israel must be paid in full before the patient is discharged; therefore, you must choose one of the following:

1. Obtain an insurance policy in your home country which will cover you while in Israel. Please contact your local carrier to be certain just where you stand in regard to health, accident, travel, and life insurance and what may be required. You should plan on bringing contingency funds to pay by credit card or cash should an emergency arise. A claim may then be filed with your insurance company for reimbursement of the fees.
2. Obtain hospitalization insurance coverage through the Student Group Hospitalization Policy of the university. There is no insurance coverage for over age 55 and is not valid for Egypt or Jordan. This policy does not cover medical problems of which the student was aware prior to arrival in Israel. The coverage is costly and may not be on a par with your own. A statement of the limits of coverage is available upon request.

This disclosure is written to make you aware of these facts. Should you have specific questions concerning any aspect of the program, please feel free to contact our offices in Rockford, Illinois, or Jerusalem.

Agreement: I have read the Disclosure Statement, and I understand and accept my medical responsibilities and verify that I have appropriate insurance coverage. I empower Jerusalem University College, in emergency situations, to assign me for medical treatment, even if such treatment is beyond my insurance coverage in Israel, including hospitalization (at my expense) if such is determined necessary by a medical doctor, and to return me to my home for medical treatment (also at my expense) if circumstances warrant.

PLEASE INITIAL HERE YOUR AGREEMENT WITH PART B

Part C: Waiver of Responsibility
I will hold Jerusalem University College and its directors, employees, their families and heirs blameless in the event of cancellation or changes in travel and program schedules, or adjustment in announced fees caused by changes in air tariffs, lodging rates, or fares by those engaged for such services.

I release Jerusalem University College and its directors, employees, their families and heirs from claims of any nature incurred by me before, during or after my time in the Middle East, and from claims arising from any act involving any person, agent, or entity not a part of the university. I agree that, in the event of war (declared or undeclared), strike, terrorism, act of God, or emergency not under the control of the Jerusalem University College, any refund will be determined by the university on an individual basis and at the university's discretion.

Agreement: I have read this Waiver of Responsibility, understand its content, and accept the risks discussed. I hereby verify that good health allows me to take part in the university’s program (including hiking, bus travel, etc.), and I absolve the university of responsibility for me in the above stated areas. Furthermore, by my signature below I acknowledge that I have read both the Statement of Standards and the Disclosure Statement and agree to abide by the conditions set out in them.
